

Vocabulary

In the Dojang, your child will use some Korean vocabulary. This helps us to remember that a lot of the martial arts we are learning came from Korea and this connects us with that history.

Our Martial Art

Pyon Moo Do (“pee-yon-moo-doe”) - The Warrior Path of Transformation

Commands

Char-yut (“chair-ee-ut”) - Attention

Kyung-ye (“kung-yay”) - Bow

Ba-ro (“bah-row”) - Stop

Common Terms

Kiap (“kee-ap”) - Short Yell

Dojang (“doe-zhang”) - Martial Arts School

Titles

Sa Bum Nim (“sah-bum-nihm”) - Head Instructor

Kyo Sa Nim (“kee-yo-sah-nihm”) - Instructor

Jo Kyo Nim (“jo-kee-yo-nihm”) - Assistant Instructor

What we say when we line up at the start of class:

Instructor:

“Dojang Code”

“One”

“Two”

“Three”

“Dojang Spirit”

Students:

“Dojang Code”

“Honor”

“Brotherhood”

“Doing things for others”

“When I focus, I can do anything!”

What we say when we line up at the end of class:

Instructor:

“When a we get angry, what do we do?”

“What do we do?”

“What do we do?”

“Let’s kiap three times”

Students:

“Think”

“Breathe”

“Be kind”

“Kiap! Kiap! Kiap!” (Hands out to sides)